

- MUSEUM (Lower Level) Showcases the history, culture and arts of the Pueblo people of New Mexico in two permanent exhibitions
- SOUTH GALLERIES AND AVANYU GALLERY (Ground Level) Showcase Native American art and educational exhibitions throughout the year.
- NATIVE AMERICAN DANCING (Courtyard, weather permitting) Native American Dances are held every weekend, Sat and Sun, April-Oct. at 11am & 2pm, Nov-Mar at 12pm. Special dances are held Jun-Aug at 2pm Thurs and Fri.
- SHUMAK'OLO:WA GIFTS (Ground Level) Offers quality, authentic Indian arts and crafts created by local and regionally established artists. The selection also includes music, clothing, books, and souvenirs for every member of the family.
- PUEBLO HARVEST CAFÉ & BAKERY (Ground Level, Outdoor Patio and Upper Level Pottery Room and Balcony) Native Fusion Cuisine, featuring: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner, Sunday Brunch, Patio Dining, Live Entertainment, Fine Wines and Ales
- INSTITUTE FOR PUEBLO INDIAN STUDIES ARCHIVES AND RESEARCH CENTER (Lower Level) A resource and Research center which provides access to researchers, students and scholars interested in the history and culture of the Pueblos of New Mexico.
- FOUR WINDS TRAVEL CENTER (South of South Entrance) Designed to meet your travel needs and more, with gas service, a convenience store, Arby's and tobacco shop.
- BANQUETS AND MEETING ROOMS available for your special event or meeting: Chaco I, II, & III, Silver & Turquoise Rooms, Coral Room, Pottery Room, SEB Building.

	ELEVATOR/STAIRS
	IPCC ADMISSION
	SECURITY DESK
	RESTROOMS

FOUR WINDS TRAVEL CENTER