

Three big weekends of events at both the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center and the National Hispanic Cultural Center celebrating the traditional histories of planting, harvesting, cooking and eating of food while considering issues of health and well-being. A series of collaborative and interactive programs and events at each site will be offered.

INDIAN PUEBLO CULTURAL CENTER SCHEDULE OF EVENTS:

An initiative of the New Mexico Community Foundation

Indian Pueblo Cultural Center: 505-843-7270 | www.indianpueblo.org

National Hispanic Cultural Center: 505-246-2261 | www.nhccnm.org

SATURDAY OCTOBER 4

10 am – 2 pm Waffle and Corn Garden Project at Rio Grande Botanic Garden, 2601 Central AVE NW. - Join Pueblo children who will harvest heirloom crops from seeds passed down throughout generations of Pueblo ancestors at the waffle gardens developed by them at the Rio Grande Botanic Garden. This is a community event and the public is invited to attend the harvest. Included with price of admission to Bio Park.

SATURDAY & SUNDAY OCTOBER 4 & 5

10 am – 2 pm Farmers Market - Native American and Hispanic Community Farmers show and sell the bounty of their crops at the Rio Grande Botanic Garden starting at 10 am. Free.

SATURDAY OCTOBER 11

8 am – 1 pm Farmers Market - Native American and Hispanic Community Farmers show and sell the bounty of their crops at the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center.

10:30 am Opening Ceremony - "From Field to Feast – A Native American and Hispanic Community Celebration." Free with admission.

11 am - 1 pm Local Chili Stew Cook-off and Food Tasting!

11 am – 3 pm Children's Activities at the Pueblo House at the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center Adobe-making workshop, plaster horno over, hands-on activities. Free with admission.

SUNDAY OCTOBER 12

8 am – 1 pm Farmers Market - Native American and Hispanic Community Farmers show and sell the bounty of their crops at the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center.

1 pm - 6 pm SouthWest Indian Film Theater: "Seasoned With Spirit" 1pm & 3pm - 6pm "Bad Sugar" 2pm. Sponsored by KNME, Native American Public Telecommunications, and California Newsreel. Free with admission.

SATURDAY OCTOBER 18

9 am – 12noon Hike at Petroglyph National Monument - Monument volunteer Geologist Jack Babcock will lead hikers around the Albuquerque Volcanoes, an important part of the Pueblo cultural landscape. Total hike is 3 miles round-trip. Hikers to meet at the Volcanoes Day Use Area parking lot located on Paseo del Volcan, 4.8 miles north of I-40. Limited to 30 participants. Free admission. Registration required. Call 899-0205 x332 to register.

2:30 pm - 4:30pm Native Chef Cook-Off at the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center. Free with general admission to IPCC.

5 pm Pueblo Feast Day Throw of Healthy Foods - At the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center. In the spirit of Pueblo Feast Days, IPCC will host a "throw" of healthy and traditional foods to all of our visitors.
Closing Ceremony at IPCC - A thoughtful and peaceful closing and call to action to preserve and promote native food and wellness. Free with admission.

Three big weekends of events at both the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center and the National Hispanic Cultural Center celebrating the traditional histories of planting, harvesting, cooking and eating of food while considering issues of health and well-being. A series of collaborative and interactive programs and events at each site will be offered.

NATIONAL HISPANIC CULTURAL CENTER (NHCC) SCHEDULE OF EVENTS:

An initiative of the New Mexico Community Foundation

Indian Pueblo Cultural Center: 505-843-7270 | www.indianpueblo.org

National Hispanic Cultural Center: 505-246-2261 | www.nhccnm.org

SATURDAY & SUNDAY OCTOBER 4 & 5, RIO GRANDE BOTANIC GARDEN

10 am – 2 pm Farmers Market - Native American and Hispanic Community Farmers show and sell the bounty of their crops at the Rio Grande Botanic Garden starting at 10 am. Free.

THURSDAY & FRIDAY OCTOBER 9 & 10 BANK OF AMERICA THEATRE, NHCC

6:30 pm Film Series - Kick-off a provocative and tantalizing film series exploring a range of cultural and food-related subjects impacting both Hispanics and Native American, with presentations by noted filmmakers and scholars. Showing: "A Pueblo Legend and the Rattlesnake" and "The Milagro Beanfield War." Free Admission.

SATURDAY OCTOBER 11, NHCC & INDIAN PUEBLO CULTURAL CENTER (IPCC)

10 am Opening Ceremony at IPCC - "From Field to Feast – A Native American and Hispanic Community Celebration." Free with admission. (At the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center)

11 am – 4 pm Community Celebration at NHCC - Health fair co-sponsored by Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Center for Health Policy at UNM, performances, film series, storytelling, artist and food demonstrations, children's activities, information about range of food and wellness subjects and a Chili Cook-Off. Free admission.

THURSDAY & FRIDAY OCTOBER 16-17 BANK OF AMERICA THEATRE, NHCC

6:30 pm Film Series - Continue with some eye-opening, thought-provoking documentaries on food production and consumption. Showing: "Super-Size Me" and "The Future of Food" Free admission.

SATURDAY OCTOBER 18 PETROGLYPH NATIONAL MONUMENT, NHCC & IPCC

9 am – 12noon Cultural Hike at Petroglyph National Monument – Start with a lecture by Dr. Joseph Sanchez on the Hispanic connection to the petroglyphs. Take a guided hike along Rinconada Canyon and see for yourself the unique Pueblo and Hispanic legacies etched in the boulders. Free admission. The lecture will take place at Petroglyph's visitor center located on Unser Blvd. NW at Western Trail. After the lecture participants will carpool to the Rinconada Canyon parking lot, located 1 mile south of the visitor center, and hike the 2.5 mile trail. Registration required. Limited to 30 participants. Call 899-0205 x332 to register.

4pm Film Series at NHCC – Conclude with an inspiration documentary about what's possible to deal with the food crisis. Showing: "The Real Dirt on Farmer John" Free admission.

5pm Pueblo Feast Day Throw of Healthy Foods - At the Indian Pueblo Cultural Center. In the spirit of Pueblo Feast Days, IPCC will host a "throw" of healthy and traditional foods to all of our visitors.
Closing Ceremony at IPCC - A thoughtful and peaceful closing and call to action to preserve and promote native food and wellness. Free with admission.